Words of Wisdom

Let us take a second to look at this passage from James. There are “two” ways of wisdom and understanding on display. Earthly wisdom is characterized by jealousy, selfish ambition, and disorder, while heavenly wisdom is pure, peaceable, gentle, and full of good fruit. Living out heavenly wisdom is demonstrated through good conduct, humility, and peacemaking.

¹³ Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom.

¹⁴ But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth.

¹⁵ This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic.

¹⁶ For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there.

¹⁷ But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

¹⁸ Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

James 3:13-18 NJKV

Life at the Misson

During our bible studies, we often discuss the difficulties that life throws our way. How do we handle these trials and struggles? Many men here at the mission are searching for hope and it can be hard to find during our times sufferings. We read Romans 5 to discover how scripture answers these questions.

Romans 5:1–5 (ESV): Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, 4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, 5 and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Misson Testimony

My experience at the mission has been very positive and uplifting. I commend the board and Lucas for providing a structured environment to move forward. James also runs a tight organized ship. The Bible Studies are very in depth and the Holy Spirit is apparent in this facility. I hope this place continues to improve the community by offering a God centered mission into the future.
